36th ESOPRS annual meeting

Welcome

Dear ESOPRS Members and Colleagues,

On behalf of the ESOPRS committee, we are honoured to invite you to the 36th Annual Meeting of the European Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery in Stockholm, Sweden, 14–16 September 2017.

The Pre-Meeting course on Thursday September 14 will cover multiple topics ranging from clinical pearls and up dates to the scientific frontier. On Friday and Saturday, the Annual ESOPRS Meeting will offer oral, poster and video presentations on all aspects of ophthalmic plastic surgery and lectures by renowned speakers from Europe and around the world. Your participation in discussions and interaction with colleagues will contribute to a creative exchange of ideas and a high-quality scientific meeting.

Both the Pre-Meeting course and the Annual Meeting will be held in the architecturally interesting Aula Medica at Karolinska Institutet.

We are also excited to be able to show you our beautiful city including its many waterways, green spaces and wonderful buildings.

A Warm Welcome to Stockholm 2017.
